

Environmental Policy

1. New-Air (Southern) Limited's guiding principal of environmental policy is to incorporate environmental considerations into all aspects of the company's activities.
2. To help make caring for the environment a guiding principal the Company has established a formal environmental policy to stand alongside its other business objectives.
3. New-Air (Southern) Ltd is committed to taking care of the environment and in managing its business will be guided by the following principals and;
 - Integrate environmental care as an important factor in our business decisions.
 - Comply with all statutory environmental requirements and aim to exceed these wherever appropriate.
 - Encourage and support not only our staff, but also our suppliers and contractors in adopting our policy of environmental care.
 - Aim to avoid or minimise any negative impact our activities might have on the environment.
 - Be open to dialogue on our environmental practices and performance with our customers and all interested parties.